GENERAL ARRANGEMENT

SUMMARY

Launched by Feadship at De Vries Scheepsbouw in Makkum, Holland, the 145' superyacht MOON SAND stands as a testament to the shipyard's in-house design expertise. A striking balance of modern innovation and classic elegance, MOON SAND reflects the vision of her owners, who collaborated closely with De Voogt Design on the sleek exterior and Bannenberg & Rowell on the refined interiors. Every element, from the bridge deck wing stations to the main deck lifting pool, seamlessly integrates function with aesthetic brilliance, embodying Feadship's meticulous attention to detail.

Designed around the principles of light, space, and flexibility, MOON SAND features expansive floor-to-ceiling windows, unobstructed by mullions, offering panoramic views throughout the main lounge, dining area, and owner's suite. The aft bulwark is kept low to enhance openness, while signature wing stations add character and volume to the yacht's profile. These design choices not only create a sense of grandeur but also provide practical benefits, ensuring seamless navigation and optimal use of space.

MOON SAND's versatile deck layouts further emphasize her adaptability. The sun deck is a spacious retreat, designed for relaxed breakfasts or lively social gatherings, with a repositionable crane that maximizes usable space. Meanwhile, the main deck aft houses a one-of-a-kind swimming pool with a lifting floor system, allowing it to transform from a deep pool for exercise to a shallow children's pool or an extended lounging area. This Feadship-first innovation underscores the yacht's commitment to offering customized luxury experiences.

Accommodating six guests in three elegant suites, MOON SAND provides additional flexibility with convertible staterooms, complementing the full-beam VIP suite. The owner's quarters are a sanctuary of comfort, complete with a private study, dual bathrooms, and walk-in dressing rooms. Whether at sea or at anchor, MOON SAND is a masterpiece of tailored yachting, where form, function, and ultimate luxury converge in perfect harmony.
